Good things about the school - Parents
• Very impressed with the Prep PMP program. Also love the learn to read to spell
• Holy Name is a great school community. Like anything, you get out of it what you put in. A fantastic school with a wonderful group of teachers and principal.
• staff are excellent.
• We chose Holy Name for its size and community spirit, as our son is shy and reserved and often doesn’t manage large crowds. We have been very impressed with the schools teachers and learning supports in the past 18 months at the school. We are particularly astounded at the teaching of values and morals, in addition the social etiquette our son has acquired. He has developed self-confidence and now looks at the person he is talking to or is talking to him. We couldn’t praise enough.
• A great school that welcomes and nurtures all.
• HN is a small school with a big heart.
• Such a fantastic school. I would highly recommend to anyone who has primary school age children. My child loves it there and am amazed at how much he learns each day.
• the school is doing a great job with my son, he has grown so much since he has started in prep.
• I love the small community feel we have at Holy Name. The newsletter is a good means of communication with parents.
• The P&F is very active in raising money for the school. The principal and front office staff are very approachable. My daughter is very happy at Holy Name and has made very nice friends there.

Good things about the school - Staff
• I would like to commend the Principal, School secretary and all the teachers for their dedication and hard work.
• Staff are caring and generally teaching staff listen to non-teaching staff and their ideas and thoughts
• Friendly and caring staff and students.
• Supporting students from diverse backgrounds. Quality teaching methods
• It is a positive environment to enter and very welcoming. There is clear direction and leadership. The focus is on students and their future.
