Our eager Prep Students have been ‘counting the sleeps’ for months now, as their journey now becomes a reality. Teachers and parents observed many bright, happy faces as our youngest children were welcomed to our school last Wednesday. The children were certainly kept very busy and have already begun to learn many new things. We hope their enthusiasm continues and that they aren’t too exhausted by the weekend!

Let’ Journey Together! Let’s Make a Difference!

’As your island of knowledge grows, so does your shoreline of wonder.’ Anon