Indigenous Children’s Cultural Day at Holy Name

On Friday the 3\textsuperscript{rd} of August, students from St Anthony’s, St Thomas More and Holy Name gathered together to celebrate Indigenous Children’s Cultural Day. Under the coordination of Nicole Booth and her staff, all the students participated in storytelling, face painting, boomerang throwing and making yummy cakes. A fantastic day! My sincere thanks, to Nicole and her team of workers.