Indigenous Children’s Cultural Day

Governments across Australia recognise Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as the First Australians with one of the oldest continuing cultures in human history. They affirm the right of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to sustain their languages and cultures and acknowledge associations with the land and water.

Governments have agreed to take urgent action to close the gap between the life outcomes of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and other Australians. As part of our commitment in Toowoomba in closing the gap, students from Catholic Schools gathered together to learn and engage in cultural activities.

The students engaged with two indigenous performers Matthew Doyle and Rick Roser and joined in activities such as Johnny Cakes, art and storytelling. The day concluded with a yummy BBQ. Many thanks to the people who coordinated